

MARC CHAGALL

1887 - 1985

Russian-French Artist

Marc Zakharovich Chagall was a Russian-French artist of Belarusian Jewish origin.

He painted in a mixed style between Cubism, Fauvism and Symbolism.

Cogniat wrote, "Chagall is unrivalled in this ability to give a vivid impression of explosive movement with the simplest use of colors..." Throughout his life his colors created a "vibrant atmosphere" which was based on "his own personal vision."

"Only love interests me, and I am only in contact with things that revolve around love."

Periods

Surrealism, Cubism, Fauvism, Expressionism, Modern Art

Influences

Jean Metzinger Robert Delaunay, Fernand Leger and Modigliani

Famous Works

- La Mariee (1950)
- The Promenade (1918)
- Over Vitebsk (1915)
- Over the Town (1918)
- The Three Candles (1940)
- Birthday (1915)
- The Praying Jew (1922)
- Bella with White Collar (1917)
- Boquet with Flying Flowers (1947)